FACULTY/STAFF NEWSLETTER

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 8

Christmas Party Set

The annual Faculty/Staff Christmas Party sponsored by the Floyd College Foundation will be held Friday, December 3, at the home of Tom Melton, vice president for Business and Finance, and his wife Cheryl, 512 E. Eleventh St., 7-10 p.m. The party is open to all Faculty, Staff, and Foundation members and their guests. Hors d'oeuvres and drinks will be served. Entertainment will be provided by a pianist and a video of the Monte Carlo Gala.

Benefits Update

Open enrollment for benefits continues through December 15. All faculty and staff members should go by the Human Resources Office during that time period to review their benefits and update coverage and options.

This year employees have the option to add dental insurance for themselves and their families. In addition, a new insurance company will be handling the college's claims. All changes will take effect January 1, 1994.

Ms. Seymour to Speak to Faculty, Staff

Pat Seymour, a nationally known speaker and one of the top 100 motivational speakers in America, will speak to faculty and staff members during a meeting Monday, November 22, at 3 p.m. in the Student Center.

Ms. Seymour holds degrees in English, history and English education and has done doctoral work in English, administration, and administration planning. She was employed for 22 years by the University of Alabama and became a full-time keynote speaker and consultant in 1988. She resides in Mentone, Alabama.

Holiday Closing

Floyd College will be closed Thursday and Friday, November 25, 26 to observe the Thanksgiving Holiday. Classes will not be held after 5 p.m. Wednesday, November 24, at all campuses.
