Student Ambassadors Chosen

The Division of Student Affairs has named eight students to its Student Ambassador program. The students will provide campus tours, assist with registration, orientation and recruitment of new students, represent the college on and off campus, serve as a role model for Floyd College, and attend regularly scheduled staff meetings.

For their participation, the ambassadors will be allowed to register on the first day of early registration, will be provided with special uniforms, will attend a training retreat, will be offered free participation in one Floyd College overnight or weekend trip per year, and will gain valuable experience which will serve them in the future. The ambassadors are evaluated each quarter to determine continuation in the program.

The ambassadors are: Karen McQueen of Rome, Michelle Jones of Cartersville, Wes Ellis of Cedartown, Emily Jackson of Rome, Rebecca Maddox of Rome, Rebecca Williams of Rome, Lisa McDougale of Adairsville, and Dawn Harden of Rome.
