

FACULTY/STAFF NEWSLETTER

MAY 1, 1998

Volume VI, Issue 12

Dinner Recognizes Service

In this year of changes and going beyond the dictates of the job to make a difference in the educational experience of our students, it is appropriate that a time is set aside to acknowledge and show appreciation to the employees who rose to the challenge.

The annual Faculty and Staff Recognition Dinner will be held Friday, May 15, at 6 p.m. at Heritage Hall. The meal will be provided by the Pick O Deli Restaurant, and will be followed by a presentation of awards and recognition of retirees.

The Vivian Benton Staff Award and the Outstanding Administrator Award will be presented during the program.

Retirees who are being recognized are Betty Bowman, associate professor of Nursing, Harrison McKinght, custodian, Richard Trimble, professor of Mathematics, and Ann Winters, custodian.

Service awards will be presented to: Patricia Guest, accounting clerk, for 25 years;

Cheryl Baker, secretary to the V.P. for Finance and Administration, Fred Green, associate professor of Developmental English, Barbara Griffith, secretary to the President, and James Lewis, electrician, for 20 years;

Mary George, interpreter, Jon Hershey, associate professor of English, Betty Nolen, associate professor of accounting, and Judy Spurgeon, accounts payable, for 15 years;

Charlie Blalock, associate professor of Developmental Mathematics, and Johnnie Hames, security guard, for 10 years; and

Susan Bishop, library associate, Dale Boyd, procurement officer, Waymon Brumbelow, security guard, Bill Cox, grounds foreman, Lynn Cundiff, president, Cherry Denney, continuing education specialist, Linda Dyer, secretary to the V.P. for Student Development, Wayne Harrison, facilities inventory analyst, David Mathis, HPER lab coordinator, Frank Minor, assistant professor of English, Juanita Morgan, custodian, Laura Musselwhite, assistant professor of History, Jan Pearson, bookstore clerk, Jane Slickman, business program specialist, Janice Thomas, secretary in the Division of Nursing, Charles Wood, security guard, and Debbie Zeigler, coordinator of Deaf and Hearing Support Services.

Faculty and staff members may bring one guest to the dinner, and are asked to RSVP to the President's Office (295.6328) as soon as possible.

Six Faculty Promoted

The Board of Regents approved the promotions of six faculty members during the April Board meeting.

Ken Weatherman of the Division of Natural Sciences, Mathematics & Physical Education, was promoted to full Professor.

Vera Brock and Pauline Ruel of the Division of Health Sciences, were promoted to Associate Professor.

Carolyn Hamrick of the Division of Learning Support was promoted to Associate Professor.

Catherine King of the Division of Natural Sciences, Mathematics & Physical Education was promoted to Associate Professor.

Kenneth Spruce of the Division of Social and Cultural Sciences was promoted to Associate Professor.

This month, the Regents will be voting on awarding tenure to selected faculty members.

Folks

Susan Claxton, director of Floyd College in Haralson County, has been elected vice president of the Southern Organization of Human Service Education.

Laura Musselwhite, assistant professor of History, gave a presentation at the Georgia Association of Historians conference titled "Floyd College and the Instructional Technology Conference."

Congratulations to Phyllis Camp, assessment coordinator, who was married to Eric Chunn April 25.

A reception to honor Jo Anne Starnes, professor of English, who will retire in August, will be held Sunday, May 17, 4-6:30 p.m. For more information call 706.295.6300

Keep the following people in your thoughts and prayers:

Carolyn Parks, director of Floyd College in Cartersville, upon the death of her husband Richard; and Felicia Claxton, daughter of Susan Claxton, director of Floyd College in Haralson County, as she awaits a new heart for transplant.

Part-time faculty member Donna Bojo who was honored as a district STAR teacher, was listed incorrectly in the last Folks & Features.

Announcements

In a continuing effort to assure a safe environment on our campuses, the President's Cabinet has approved a delineation of responsibilities in a number of related areas.

The Environmental Health and Safety Committee, headed by Michael Windelspecht, assistant professor of Biology, is concerned with policy issues, such as the designated smoking areas.

The Right-to-Know trainers, under the leadership of Lynn Mills, administrative secretary in Plant Operations, maintain accurate records of chemicals on campus, and inform users of those chemicals of any hazards.

The Building/Site Safety Coordinators will be assigned to administrative secretaries in each building. They are: Missy Mayne, Heritage Hall; Kathy Hightower, NMTI; Martha Kirkpatrick, HPER; Lynn Mills, Plant Operations; Annette Foster, Library; Lillian Long, Haralson site; Jennifer Meece, Walraven Building; and Kim Richardson, Administrative building. Security Officers will be responsible for the outside areas of the campuses.

Wayne Harrison serves as the facilities coordinator, and will assure that all minor repairs itemized on reports from the safety coordinators are completed.

Employee training on such things as CPR, crime/rape prevention, etc., will be handled through the Human Resources Office.

Security officers will assist in emergency situations and coordinate periodic drills.

The safety director is Sandy Briscar, director of Public Information, will assure that all coordinators and trainers are completing their responsibilities within the required time frames.

Floyd College
Folks & Features is published biweekly by the Office of Public Information. Information for inclusion can be e-mailed to:
sandy_briscar@mail.fc.peachnet.edu no later than noon Tuesday prior to publication.

SMB

The Continuing Education Department will offer the following classes during May:

Presentation Skills Training
Real Estate Sales
Twenty-First Century Leaders
Surfing The Internet
Keyboarding
Introduction to Windows 95
Microsoft Word
Computer Icebreaker
Gymnastics for Ages 5-7
Gymnastics for ages 8-16
1-2-3 Magic: How to Train Your Children to Do What You Want
Cake Decorating
Stained Glass
Basic Sign Language
Protecting Your Assets from Lawsuits
Introduction to Investments
Survival Sewing Skills
Country & Western Dance: East Coast Swing
Social Ballroom Dance Tango

The Small Business Development Center offers:

How to Start Your Own Small Business
Entrepreneurial Marketing
Designing an Effective Web Page For Your Business
How To Get Money For Your Business
Understanding Your Company's Financial Statements

To register call 706.295.6324 for Continuing Ed, and 706.295.6326 for SBDC.